JESSICA SLACK

“Being a member of dot-art opens the door to a wide range of creative opportunities from corporate murals to art exhibitions and more. It’s fantastic to be part of the Liverpool art community, hearing about the wins of other artists and supporting one another along the way.”

Membership includes an e-commerce gallery on our website, opportunities to exhibit including in our Liverpool city centre gallery, access to commissions, art rentals and community projects as well as social events and discounts. We handle promotion, so you can focus on creating, and we'll notify you about any opportunities suited to your work.
